PL221 SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT PLANNING

The Indiana Conference on Learning is designed to help schools explore practical strategies to include in their 2008-2009 School Improvement Plans. Prior to attending the conference, participants may wish to conduct a self study of their school and community to discover areas that may be interfering with learning. Participants may then wish to attend breakout sessions to explore strategies to address their areas of concern.

INDIANA STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT INSTITUTE

The Indiana Student Achievement Institute (InSAI) is a non-profit, 501(c)3, organization that assists schools with the process of school improvement for the purpose of raising student achievement and closing achievement gaps. InSAI has been doing the work of school improvement since 1996 and has assisted over 398 elementary, middle, and high schools in Indiana with various aspects of school improvement.
