Who Should Attend?

Join over 1,000 educators who attend this popular conference each year:

- Principals, teachers, counselors, superintendents
- Elementary, middle and high schools
- Urban, suburban, and rural

Why Attend?

- National Keynote Presenters: Hear from thought-provoking keynote presenters who influence education in Indiana and nationally.
- 50+ Breakout Sessions: Listen to Indiana principals, teachers, and counselors present proven strategies used in their schools, classrooms and communities to impact key areas that influence achievement.
- Statewide Discussion: Participate in a statewide discussion about academic rigor: 1) What does academic rigor mean at your school? 2) How do schools concretely convey their expectation for academic rigor to students and parents? 3) How do teachers help all students succeed at a rigorous level?

Indiana Student Achievement Institute

The Indiana Student Achievement Institute (InSAI) is a non-profit organization that assists schools with the process of improvement to raise student achievement and close achievement gaps. Since 1996, InSAI has helped more than 400 Indiana elementary, middle, and high schools design and implement sound improvement plans.
