- Elementary, middle and high schools
- Urban, suburban, and rural

Why Attend?

- National Keynote Presenters: Hear from thought-provoking keynote presenters who influence education in Indiana and nationally.
- 60+ Breakout Sessions: Listen to Indiana principals, teachers, and counselors present proven strategies used in their schools, classrooms and communities to impact key areas that influence achievement.
- Statewide Discussion: Participate in a statewide discussion about academic rigor: 1) What does academic rigor mean in your community? 2) How do communities concretely convey their expectation for academic rigor to students and parents? 3) How do teachers and community members help all students succeed at a rigorous level?

Indiana Student Achievement Institute

The Indiana Student Achievement Institute (InSAI) is a non-profit organization that assists schools and communities with the process of systemic improvement to raise student achievement, close achievement gaps and open the door for all students to succeed in postsecondary education. Since 1996, InSAI has helped more than 450 Indiana schools and communities design and implement sound improvement initiatives focused on high achievement for all students.
